

Northwest Permanente

VIRTUAL

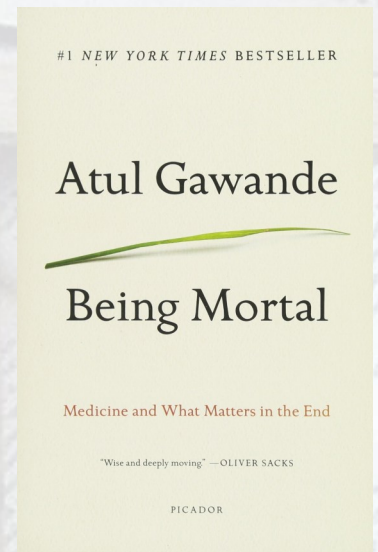

BOOK CLUB

We would like to invite all clinicians to join us in our virtual book club!

October 2020 Book:

“Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End”
by Atul Gawande

Reading will begin October 1st, virtual discussion scheduled for November 19, 2020, 6pm-7pm

The purpose of the NWP Virtual Book Club is to give clinicians the opportunity to connect with their colleagues, while exploring the larger themes of medicine through reading and discussing books relevant to their medical practice.

To register, please click here and sign-up via the NWP Knowledge Portal.

For more information, contact: Megan.K.Sprague@kp.org

Accreditation: The Northwest Permanente, PC, Department of Continuing Medical Education & Professional Development (NWP CME & PD) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation: NWP CME & PD designates this Other activity (Virtual book club discussion) for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Statement: All individuals with influence over the educational content of this CME activity have disclosed they have no financial relationships with manufacturers of pharmaceuticals, medical devices, or any other commercial medical products or services.