

CME Course

Practicing CATCH

Cultural Agility Through Cultural Humility

Improve patient experience and clinical effectiveness and earn CME credit. This new enduring education series revolves around improving our workplace culture, with a specific focus on better health outcomes of our patients.

Learn about the history of discrimination in Portland, equity vs. equality, unconscious bias, and the health disparities of our members. By completing this activity, you can also earn 1 AMA PRA Category 1 credits™.

Program overview

This course spans several modules. Throughout each module, you will see or hear a brief summary of concepts, behaviors, and goals that illustrate equity, inclusion, and diversity best practices to help you in providing care. The program requires you to meaningfully complete each module to receive CME credit.

Steps to completion

- Go here to begin the course.
- Set aside 1 hour to finish all the modules.
- Fill out and submit the final attestation.

Questions

- For technical support, contact Chad Mills at Chad.C.Mills@kp.org.
- For content support, contact Gwen Turner at Gwendolyn.F.Turner@kp.org.

Accreditation: The Northwest Permanente, PC, Department of Continuing Medical Education & Professional Development (NWP CME & Professional Development) is accredited by the Oregon Medical Association to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation: NWP CME & Professional Development designates Enduring Material CME Activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Statement: All individuals with influence over the educational content of this CME activity have disclosed whether they have any financial relationships with manufacturers of pharmaceuticals, medical devices, or any other commercial medical products or services. No one has any financial relationships to disclose. Updated August 2020.

